Additional description

The WOOD TV audio furniture Tygo from untreated oak is a basic. This retro style brings a special contemporary sixties ambiance to your home. This wall unit is equipped with 1 drawer, 1 open compartment and 1 folding door where there is enough space to store media equipment, DVDs and CDs. And that is why this piece of furniture has a hole in the partition, in the bottom sheet and in the back wall so that the wiring can be laid through it.

A TV audio furniture that is very versatile. The dimensions of this piece of furniture are (bxhxd): 150x47x44 cm. The untreated oak consists of strips of glued oak wood. In order to protect the furniture, it is recommended to treat the oak with furniture oil or lacquer. The TV audio furniture is also available in width 100 cm....
