This modern corner sofa, from the collection of Dutch brand WOODO, is made of a coarse melange fabric (90%PES 10%PAC). With a Martindale of 50,000, the fabric of the Freddie corner sofa is very strong and suitable for intensive home use. In the lounge area, a stitching seam runs across the wide seat cushion in line with the seat cushions of the sofa section. The modern design of Freddie fits in with every living style. With its practical design, Freddie provides more than enough seating for the whole family. This corner sofa is also available in a left-hand version.

The dimensions are (hwxwd): 90x283x197 cm (depth 197 cm is the depth of the total lounge area). The lounge area has a width of 190 cm. The sofa has loose back- and seat cushions and a firm and excellent seating comfort. The height of the armrest is 58 cm, the armrest width is 20 cm, the seat depth is 63 cm and the seat height is 42 cm.

This sofa is delivered in two elements. The elements are easy...
