Additional description

Subtle serving board with natural features
Made of mango wood with dark brown coating
Chunky woodwork in a simple design
H 6 cm x W 33 cm x D 20 cm

The Aya tray is a robust serving board with characteristic features. Aya is from the collection of the Dutch interior brand WOOD and is made of strong mango wood. The plateau has retained the natural characteristics of the wood, which means that grooves, cracks and pits give the plateau a lot of character. The dark brown coating ensures that stains are easier to remove with warm soapy water and mild detergents.

The Aya platter has an overall height of 6 cm, a width of 33 cm and a depth of 20 cm with an oval shape. To protect delicate surfaces, place felt glides under the block leg...
