The interior of the cabinet contains 10 storage compartments. The upper left and right compartment have a height of 49 cm and the others have a height of 39 cm. The width of all compartments is 47 cm.

This piece of furniture has a weight of 67 kg and is delivered as a kit (in 3 packages) with a clear assembly instruction.

In case of hard floors, place felt glides under the legs. This prevents damage to the floor...
