Timeless design and items that never get boring, that's what Nordic design is known for. This Pointed table lamp is from the collection of Dutch interior design brand BePureHome and stands out with its taut raffia shade. The metal base ensures the light is reflected luxuriously. Also ideal for a bohemian or botanical living style.

Material

Raffia is a very strong natural product and also very flexible, ensuring a high level of durability. The raffia in our collections is beautifully light in colour. The natural raffia can react strongly to the environment, weather influences gradually cause the fibres to grey or mould. For this reason, these items are only suitable for indoor use.
