Add an extra dimension to your favourite flowers with this vase with dented design. Vase Elio comes from the Exclusive collection by Dutch interior design brand WOOD and is a playful item with a stylish look. The blue-green colour of the blown glass has an atmospheric, warm undertone and combines well with an exciting material mix of other decorative items, such as: wood, metal or fabrics.

Material

The glassware in our collections is shaped in various ways; hand-/mouth-blown or machine-made. The artisanal art of glasswork ensures that each item is unique and slight unevenness may occur in the collections. The colouring of transparent glass is done at an early stage of the process, an opaque colouring of the glass is done after the glass item is fully formed and cooled down. Organic colourings are used for our colouring techniques at all times.
