The Eat Up wall bench by vtwonen is a playful designer item with its coarse block leg, subtle corner jointing techniques and the generous cushions. With its basic design, the bench is an easy item to combine with various interior styles, the neutral oak gives a Scandinavian touch to this comfortable piece of seating.

Material

The Curry bouclé fabric has an even colouring and a slightly felt-like grip. The woolly bouclé is made of 100% Harmolan PP, making the fabric a durable choice. Harmolan PP can be recycled up to 10 times and producing the synthetic threads requires no water use and chemicals. With a Martindale of 45,000, the fabric is suitable for reasonably intensive residential use and stays in good shape.
